The first part is a self-Survey:

Study Link remains great variability regarding decisions to

Although interest in Cardiothoracic Surgery

December 15, 2020

Hunter Mehaffey (send nominations with letter of support to J motivate surgical educators in our field. Please operating room, such as through academic or educator who has demonstrated a significant

The TSRA is

port Organization (ELSO)

Western Thoracic Surgical

Summit

American College of Cardi-

International Society for Annual Update on Pediat-

Congenital

podcast with quickly and experience no significant feeding issues.

common. As many as 25% of preterm infants will demonstrate some degree of

Answer: D;

Questions 4:

Answer: B;

Arterial saturations between 75 and 85% are considered adequate.

The factor most influencing flow across a systemic to pulmonary

A 30 year old male presents to the hospital with worsening shortness of

The most common complication of surgical ligation of PDA is:

The AATS acknowledges the importance of ethics in our specialty. Be on

All these tenants are equally important to consider in global initiatives.

forcing us to place even more scrutiny on our activities. The CTSnet has al-

dents to ensure ethical behavior in each phases of global health initiatives:

Dr. Fenton outlined key ethical principles for global health initiatives in cardi-

By: Yihan Lin

By: Garrett Coyan

Note

Purchase now in online and print.

Stay tuned 3rd edition first